

Support UCU proposals for reforming the governance of our universities

The Scottish Government is consulting on a bill to reform higher education governance. Support UCU Scotland's proposals to make our universities more democratic, representative and transparent.

UCU Scotland wants to see:

- ▶ elected chairs of governing bodies
- ▶ governing bodies to be more representative and to include trade union and student representation
- ▶ an agreed definition of academic freedom to protect all academic and related staff.

Get involved at www.ucu.org.uk/scotland