

Congratulations on your Graduation

From the lecturers, library staff, IT staff, learning development tutors, programme administrators, disability advisors, careers advisors, security guards, cleaners.... And everyone at university whose work has contributed to you finally getting your degree.

Well Done

Now we'd welcome your support

We've been forced to take action to defend our working conditions - which are students' teaching conditions. Please support our campaign.

You can now write to our principal as an Alumni asking the university to support decent pay for staff.

Please write to: principal@gcu.ac.uk
